THE HANDSOME AND COMMODIOUS DWELLING, WITH BROAD LOT, NO. 290 FOURTH AVENUE, CHEST-NUT HILL, AT AUCTION.

Horne, deceased, we will sell his late residence, No. 200 Fourth Avenue, Chestnut Hill, on THURSDAY, APRII, 27, 1911, at 5:00 o'clock P. M.

This is a most attractive house, with fifteen or sixteen rooms, close to the city limits, and it enjoys first-cluss street car accommodation, at minimum fare, with all parts of the city and suburbs. It is really one of the most desirable suburban homes around Richmond, and should attract the attention of buyers, as it will doubtless sell far below its intrinsic value. The house has electric lights, hot and coid water, both etc., and a large and very attractive lawn, the lot fronting 120 feet by a depth of 146 feet to an alley upon which it has a stuble and carriage house.

As the heirs of Mr. Horne's estate are determined to dispose of the property, we apprehend that it will sell at a bargain price. The house can be seen at any time before the sale by appointment made through us,

TERMS: Very liberal, and announced at sale.
